

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY

Short facts

The bottom half of the page features several overlapping, semi-transparent purple shapes. These shapes are rounded rectangles and trapezoids, some tilted at an angle, creating a layered, abstract graphic effect against the solid purple background.

ON OUR WAY TO JÖNKÖPING INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY 2025

VISION

We build an international university in Jönköping.

We attract highly qualified, inventive and enterprising people from all over the world.

We contribute to sustainable prosperity in the region where we reside, making way for knowledge based innovation and enterprise.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Jönköping University is a private non-profit institution of higher education with the right to award doctorates. It is characterised by internationalisation, an entrepreneurial spirit and collaboration with surrounding society. Jönköping University operates on the basis of an agreement with the Swedish Government and conforms to national degree regulations and quality requirements.

- 10,000 students, of which 1,500 are international students from 80 countries
- Approximately 720 employees (FTEs)
- 53 full professors, 36 associate professors and 120 assistant professors
- 190 PhD students
- 70 study programmes
- 200 single-subject courses
- Foundation courses
- 350 partner universities worldwide

The data reported is from 2015. We refer to the Annual Report for time series, or Jönköping University's website ju.se for more information.

GUIDING VALUES

- Be professional.
- Be inventive and enterprising.
- Be international at heart.
- Stay curious and continue to learn.

COLLABORATION AND EXTERNAL ENGAGEMENT

Increasing our external engagement is a focus area for all initiatives at Jönköping University. Collaboration and co-production with business and industry as well as with the public sectors contribute to the development as well as the relevance and quality of the university's activities. At the same time, Jönköping University contributes to the development of society at a regional, a national and an international level.

- Tailor made commissioned education.
- Industrially related final year projects and theses
- 700 host companies within business and industry.
- 1,000 partner schools.
- Placement studies and internships.
- Research projects with industry and other partners.

SCIENCE PARK

Science Park Jönköping provides support for the start-up, development and growth of business ventures. It is a meeting place for entrepreneurs, students and researchers and approximately 70 enterprises are started each year by students.

EDUCATION

Students and staff from all over the world, combined with an international perspective throughout all education, offer students at Jönköping University an intercultural experience on campus and prepare them for working in an international context in Sweden and abroad. Jönköping University has approximately 60 programmes and specialisations on Bachelor's and Master's level, as well as research education.

1,138 incoming new students from 60 countries,
whereof 667 are exchange students
and 471 are international programme students, whereof 300 are fee-paying students.
517 outgoing students
350 partner universities worldwide

EDUCATION CONDUCTED IN ENGLISH ON ALL LEVELS

- Pathway programmes – Foundation courses
- Higher Education Diploma
- Bachelor's programmes
- Master's programmes

STUDENTS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Jönköping University has an overriding international profile and students and staff are offered an international environment both on campus and abroad. The University is one of the top universities in Sweden in terms of international student exchange and has 1,500 international students from all over the world. The number of international students from outside EU/EES enrolled in a study programme has steadily increased over the years.

WHERE DO OUR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS COME FROM?

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMME STUDENTS

RESEARCH

High quality as well as quantity of research provides education based in research and enables collaboration with the surrounding society. This way, Jönköping University contributes to meet societal challenges in promoting sustainable development.

FOCUS AREAS WITHIN RESEARCH

- Entrepreneurship, ownership and renewal
- Technical expertise and know-how to small and medium-sized enterprises
- Health, care and social work from a holistic perspective
- Conditions for education and communication

RESEARCH EDUCATION

Jönköping University is entitled to issue doctoral degrees in the disciplinary research domain of humanities and social sciences. Within technology, the university can issue licentiate and doctoral degrees in the field of Industrial Product Development.

- No. 1 in Europe and no. 3 in the world in family business research. Ranked as one of the top 25 business schools in family business education and research (Family Capital).
- World leading in research on materials and manufacturing technology for casting. Collaborations with eg. Volvo, Scania and Husqvarna.
- World renowned interdisciplinary research in ageing. Proximity to practice in nursing and access to databases of large-scale longitudinal population studies.
- Research within children, health, intervention, learning and development based on the WHO's health classifications and associated with the leading European programme the Swedish Institute for Disability Research.

SCHOOL OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

School of Health and Welfare is one of Sweden's foremost educational institutions in the fields of health, health care and nursing, and social work. Research is conducted within the research areas: ADULT (Alienation, Disability, Unify, Life style and Treatment), ARN – J (Aging Research Network – Jönköping), CHILD, Improvement, Innovation and Leadership for Health and Welfare and Social Welfare, and the research centres Biomedical Platform, Centre for Oral Health, and Jönköping Academy for Improvement of Health and Welfare.

FACTS

- 2,000 students
- 130 employees
- 55 doctoral students
- 5 research areas
- 3 research centres
- 60 international partner universities

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND COMMUNICATION

School of Education and Communication offers education on graduate and undergraduate levels, doctoral education and commissioned education in the areas of teaching, learning, communication, international work, and human resources. Research is conducted within the research areas: Lifelong Learning, Media and Communication Studies, Learning Practises inside and outside school, Global Studies and CHILD.

FACTS

- > 4,000 students
- > 140 employees
- > 30 doctoral students
- > 5 research areas
- > 100 international partner universities
- > 1,000 partner schools

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

School of Engineering offers education at bachelor, masters and doctoral levels, and 2-year courses at university college level and higher vocational education level. Contact with industry is an important part of education in order to ensure that the education is anchored in reality, and to acquire practical experience. Research and doctoral education are targeted at industrial product realisation in cooperation, especially applications for small and medium-sized enterprises.

FACTS

- > 2,600 students
- > 150 employees
- > 35 doctoral students
- > 80 international partner universities
- > 400 host companies

JÖNKÖPING INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

Jönköping International Business School conducts education, research and doctoral education in business administration, commercial and tax law, economics, informatics and statistics. There are three focus areas: Entrepreneurship, Ownership and Renewal. In 2015, Jönköping International Business School became the first business school in Sweden to receive both EQUIS and AACSB accreditations.

FACTS

- 2,100 students
- 120 employees
- 70 doctoral students
- 7 research centres
- 5 disciplines
- 150 international partner universities
- 300 host companies

VALUE PROPOSITIONS

TO OUR STUDENTS

- High academic standard and profound real-world relevance.
- An inspiring international study environment on campus.
- Excellent career and entrepreneurial opportunities in Sweden and abroad.

TO OUR EXTERNAL PARTNERS

- Educating people with internationally competitive competence for future working life.
- Collaborating to solve future challenges through research and development.
- Tailoring academic commissioned education for our partners needs.

TO OUR NATIONAL AND REGIONAL POLICY STAKEHOLDERS

- Together with our partners we put science to work for a competitive Swedish industry and public sector.
- We contribute to economic, social and cultural prosperity in the region where we reside.

Jönköping University
P.O. Box 1026
SE-551 11 Jönköping
Sweden

+46 (0)36 10 10 00
study@ju.se

facebook.com/jonkopinguniversity
instagram: @jonkopinguni
twitter: @jonkopinguni

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY