- Browse to kronox.hj.se and select “Advanced search”
- First, select a start and end date for your search
- Second, select a search criteria, for example your signature
- Select ”iCal format”
- Click the link beginning with ”webcal”

- You will then be asked to choose an application to open the link.

- Select Outlook and click "OK".
- This window will then appear:

By default, the calendar will be named "KRONOX". If you would like to name it differently, click "Advanced...", otherwise click yes to add the calendar to Outlook.

NOTE! Kronox will not be synchronized automatically to mobile devices even after it has been added to your Outlook calendar. You can add the subscription by following the steps above and then email the webcal-link to yourself. Then open the email in your phone and open the link from there.
