

10 YEARS AT JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY

10 YEARS

2016-11-10

CHILD 10 YEARS AT JU

The Research Unit CHILD celebrates 10 years at Jönköping University. We celebrate this by giving a day conference on research trends. Join us for this anniversary on November 10, 2016!

Sign up by contacting CHILD's Research Coordinator Cecilia.Allegrind@ju.se by the latest October 15, 2016.

10 YEARS AT JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY

PROGRAM

- 09:30-09:55 Registration and coffee in Vistasalen Hb 116 at HLK, JU.
- 10:00-10:30 From monodisciplinary to interdisciplinary research – a focus on everyday functioning (Professor Mats Granlund, JU)
- 10:30-11:00 Children with long term health conditions – where are we and where are we going (Professor Karin Enskär, JU)
- 11:00-11:30 Preschool and school as a context for intervention
(Professor Eva Björck-Åkesson, JU)
- 11:30-12:00 Children with disabilities – participation as a means and an end (Professor Mats Granlund)
- 12:00-13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30-14:15 Childhood intervention in an international perspective
(Professor Rune Simeonsson, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA)
- 14:15-15:00 Children's rights and childhood intervention (Professor Juan Bornman, University of Pretoria, South Africa)
- 15:00-15:30 Coffee break
- 15.30-16:00 Trends in intervention research that can advance study of children with long term health conditions and their families
(Associate Professor Sheila Santacroce, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA)
- 16:00-16:30 Discussion and closing
- 18:30 Dinner for CHILD-members and speakers

