Contents

The objectives of this course are to describe the background of corporate governance principles; to illustrate the relationship between legislation and “soft” law (codes) in corporate governance; to examine the existing monitoring and enforcement mechanisms in different EU Member States as far as corporate governance codes are concerned; to obtain an impression of the companies’ perception of the codes. The contents are structured as follows:

I. Theoretical Aspects and Developments

- Theoretical aspects of corporate governance;
- Development of corporate governance codes;
- General background in the European Union;
- Relation between legislation and codes: rules applying to companies;
- Relationship between legislation and codes: rules applying to Shareholders;
- Monitoring and enforcement of corporate governance codes.

II. Analysis of Company Practice within the EU

- Comply-or-explain information;
- Country-specific-observations;
- Board of Directors (Supervisory Board);
- Audit Committees;
- Remuneration.

Type of instruction

Lectures and group discussions; case analysis; workshops. The course is on-campus.

The teaching is conducted in English.

Prerequisites

Bachelor's degree in Business Administration or Economics (i.e the equivalent of 180 credits at an accredited university) or the equivalent.

Examination and grades

The course is graded A, B, C, D, E, FX or F.

The examination consists of two parts: an individual examination and one group project (consisting of different parts).

Individual written exam, ILOs: 1-2, 4-5, 7 representing 4.5 credits.

Group assignments, ILOs: 1-4, 8 representing 3 credits.

Registration of examination:

Name of the Test	Value	Grading
Examination [†]	7.5 credits	A/B/C/D/E/FX/F

[†] All parts of compulsory examination in the course must be passed with a passing grade (A-E) before a final grade can be set. The final grade of the course is determined by the sum total of points for all parts of examination in the course (0-100 points). Grade is set in accordance to JIBS grading policy.

Course evaluation

It is the responsibility of the examiner to ensure that each course is evaluated. At the outset of the course, evaluators must be identified (elected) among the students. The course evaluation is carried out continuously as well as at the end of the course. On the completion of the course the course evaluators and course examiner discuss the course evaluation and possible improvements. A summary report is created and archived. The reports are followed up by program directors and discussed in program groups and with relevant others (depending on issue e.g. Associate Dean of Education, Associate Dean of faculty, Director of PhD Candidates, Dean and Director of Studies). The next time the course runs, students should be informed of any measures taken to improve the course based on the previous course evaluation.

Other information

JIBS students are expected to maintain a strong academic integrity. This implies to behave within the boundaries of academic rules and expectations relating to all types of teaching and examination.

Copying someone else's work is a particularly serious offence and can lead to disciplinary action. When you copy someone else's work, you are plagiarizing. You must not copy sections of work (such as paragraphs, diagrams, tables and words) from any other person, including another student or any other author. Cutting and pasting is a clear example of plagiarism. There is a workshop and online resources to assist you in not plagiarizing called the Interactive Anti-Plagiarism Guide.

Other forms of breaking academic integrity include (but are not limited to) adding your name to a project you did not work on (or allowing someone to add their name), cheating on an examination, helping other students to cheat and submitting other students work as your own, and using non-allowed electronic equipment during an examination. All of these make you liable to disciplinary action.
