ABOUT H(S)NC BOARD

The Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board, (H(S)NC Board) was founded in the year 1921 in Hyderabad (Sind). It was destined to play a crucial role in the lives of millions of students in Mumbai after the partition of the subcontinent into India and Pakistan. A dream, a strategy, a hope and a changed political situation seem to have been the basic ingredients of what is today a reputed chain of well-managed colleges under the H(S)NC Board.

The vision of the Founding Principal K. M. Kundanani realized the need for the present and futuristic academic development of the displaced Sindhi community. He together with Late Barrister Hotchand G. Advani started the Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board in Mumbai in 1949.

The first college under the aegis of the board was named Rishi Dayaram National College, Bandra. This was followed by a chain of Educational Institutions committed to teaching and research in Arts, Science, Commerce, Management, Education, Law, Pharmacy, Engineering and Technology. Today, the H(S)NC Board manages 25 educational Institutions with approximately forty thousand students.

ABOUT KC COLLEGE, MUMBAI

Kishinchand Chellaram (KC) College was established in 1954 under the aegis of the Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board. The college has been re-accredited with an A grade by NAAC in three consecutive cycles. The college was adjudged as the Best College (Urban Area) by the University of Mumbai in 2015 and the institution has created a benchmark in the field of education. KC College has been awarded many laurels in various fields. In 2019, the college was awarded with Star College status by DBT (Department of Biotechnology) Govt. of India. Today it has the distinction of being one of the five colleges in Mumbai with the star status awarded by DBT. The college is also funded with the prestigious FIST program by DST (Department of Science and Technology) Govt. of India.

The college has a very impressive list of companies where the students have been placed post their studies from graduation to PhD. KC College is recognized as one of the finest colleges in South Mumbai, which lays great emphasis on the holistic development of its students.

ABOUT BOMBAY TEACHERS' TRAINING COLLEGE, MUMBAI

The Bombay Teachers' Training College (BTTC) has created a brand name for itself through its commitment to quality since its inception in 1969. The college of education functions under the umbrella of the Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board which has always shown visionary leadership. The college has been re-accredited A Grade in all three cycles by NAAC - it is its endeavor to maintain this benchmark to achieve the goal of excellence. The college is affiliated to the University of Mumbai and recognized by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE).

BTTC has grown from strength to strength in varied academic spheres during the 50 years of its existence. It started with a B.Ed. course and now it has programmes from pre-primary to Post Graduation level. BTTC has carved a niche as a reputed center of teacher education in South Mumbai. The role of the teacher has changed over the years and BTTC continues to be a catalyst and contributes significantly to changing the scenario of education. It has provided a platform to hone the skills required to be effective teachers. The college also imparts value-added courses to bridge the gap between the prescribed curriculum and the skills needed in current times. BTTC's placement cell ensures that its students and alumni are placed locally and globally.

ABOUT JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY, SWEDEN

Jönköping University (JU) is a young professional-oriented university characterised by a high degree of internationalization, an entrepreneurial spirit and extensive collaboration with its surrounding society. It is one of the three Swedish private, non-profit institutions of higher education with the right to award doctorates.

The study environment at the School of Education and Communication, where the CCD (Communication, Culture and Diversity) Research Group is situated, is of the creative and inspiring kind. Here, the distance between teachers and students is short, and there is always room for discussion. The School of Education and Communication offers programmes in communication and marketing, international work, human resources and teacher education.

Jönköping University has signed Memorandums of Understandings (MOU's) with KC College, the University of Mumbai and SNDTW University with the aim of establishing sustainable exchanges of staff and students. It is in the process of establishing a similar collaboration with BTTC. Currently JU and KC College have an on-going staff exchange project, funded by the Swedish grant Linnaeus Palme 2019-2021.

ABOUT CCD-COMMUNICATION, CULTURE AND DIVERSITY, JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY, SWEDEN

The multi-disciplinary and international network-based research group CCD-Communication, Culture and Diversity, focuses on issues of learning and communication inside and outside institutional educational settings (preschool, compulsory school, upper secondary school and adult education) and places of work (government agencies, health care sector, non-for-profit establishments, etc). CCD was established during the second half of the 1990's at Örebro University, Sweden. It was relocated to the School of Education and Communication at Jönköping University in 2016.

The three central terms: Communication, Culture and Diversity, come together in CCD with the purpose to form both a perspective and a point of departure for research on communication in analogue-digital-virtual-real settings. Each of the terms functions as an object of study as well as methodological and theoretical points of departure.

ABOUT DEPARTMENT OF MASS MEDIA, KC COLLEGE, MUMBAI

The Department of Mass Media was listed among the Top 10 Mass Communication Departments in the country by the India Today magazine for seven times in the last ten years and also among the Top 10 by The Week magazine in 2019. Keeping in view the increasing demand of media professionals, the department has been successfully offering undergraduate degree courses - Bachelors of Mass Media (BMM), BA in Film, Television and New Media Production (BAFTNMP) and two, two-year Postgraduate Degree Programs Masters in Communication and Journalism (MACJ) and Masters in Entertainment, Media and Advertising (MA-EMA). All courses are affiliated and recognized by the University of Mumbai.

CONFERENCE THEME: LeaDMe

Issues related to Globalization, Digitization, the Glocal village, Virtual learning, Customized Media for entertainment and Education for the future, have emerged in recent times or have undergone a major change as the world surges into the third decade of this millennium. These issues can no longer remain in the confines of research endeavours in the global-North. Nor are they ideas that can remain as dimensions of the imagination of a few sci-fi and fantasy writers. Issues of learning, digitalization and media are closely intertwined and need to be recognized in terms of the opening of a Pandora's Box that enables new possibilities for generating glocal knowledge where multidisciplinary oriented scholars collaborate across the global-North and global-South.

The LeaDMe, Learning Digitalization and Media International Conference has been conceptualized as a strategic initiative for a theoretical research-oriented conference meeting (13-14 Feb, 2020) and a cross-sectorial platform (15 Feb, 2020) that brings together various sectors and professionals engaged in the enterprise of education, digitalization and media. It is jointly hosted by three institutions – two from Mumbai, India and the third multidisciplinary-oriented from Jönköping, Sweden.
