

Future Boardroom Talent 2014

Obtain a place on board of directors

Are you interested in learning more about what a board of directors does? Do you dream of a career as an executive? Apply to Future Boardroom Talent and receive an executive position of an exciting company for a year — a unique chance to gain useful skills, merits, and contacts for your career.

The Prize

- An adjunct position in the board of directors under a one-year period at an interesting company in the region.
- Admission for you and a friend to The Big Boardroom Day in Jönköping 2014 — an event with inspiring talks and great chances for networking, lunch and “fika” included.
- Enrollment in the certification course Right Focus, held by The Swedish Academy of Board Directors in Jönköping Region (StyrelseAkademien i Jönköpings län).

Criteria

- 30 years of age or younger
- A degree from or entering the final year (2014–2015) at Jönköping University (School of Engineering or Jönköping International Business School)
- The applicant should be goal-oriented and interested in making contacts for the future. The applicant should draw from a valuable knowledge of your own target market, social media, or technology trends, as well as a curiosity for how executive operations work.

Jury

- Johan Roos, CEO JIBS
- Helen Einarson, New Position
- Lars-Åke Rydh, Board Member at The Swedish Academy of Board Directors, Jönköping
- The Enterprise Managers of Jönköping Region, represented by Sonja Rundgren, Sävsjö Municipality

Application

Send your CV and a cover letter by June 30th and tell us why you are a Future Boardroom Talent.

The Deal

Nomination gives five winners of each their own adjunct position in the board of directors under a one-year period at a Jönköping Region based company. This means that you actively participate in board meetings with advice and work as seen fit. You will however not have the right to vote as a board member. The award also includes that you and a friend receive admission to The Big Boardroom Day in Jönköping on the 25th of September at Spira. You will also be enrolled in the certification course Right Focus, held by The Swedish Academy of Board Directors in Jönköping Region. The course will be held in Swedish. You will also be reimbursed for travel costs to and from board meetings. Any other potential associated costs will not be included. Selection will be made by The Swedish Academy of Board Directors in Jönköping Region together with the jury.
