

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY
School of Education and Communication

Dear Student,

Welcome to the School of Education and Communication!

It is my sincere privilege to welcome you to the School of Education and Communication at Jönköping University. Our school is a very special place where much time and effort are devoted to scholarly, collaborative, and practitioner-oriented academic endeavors.

The School of Education and Communication offers undergraduate programmes in the areas of communication and marketing, international work, human resources and teaching. We also offer three master's programmes in sustainable communication, interventions in childhood and the Swedish preschool model, single-subject courses and doctoral programmes. They are all based on comprehensive, rigorous, and research-based curricula designed to prepare you for your future careers.

The learning environment at the School of Education and Communication is of the inclusive, creative, and inspiring kind that will provide you with the best possible conditions to enable you to achieve your academic goals. Our school is built upon a faculty that brings a wealth of knowledge, research, and experience to each programme, and there is little distance between teachers and students.

I am convinced that you will experience many invaluable learning opportunities and new insights during your time with us. I wish you all the very best for your studies.

With kind regards,

Marie Öhman
Dean of School of Education and Communication
