

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY
School of Health and Welfare

Welcome to the Master programme of Occupational Therapy (120 credits) at School of Health and Welfare, Jönköping University, starting on August 24, 2020

Welcome to the Master programme of Occupational Therapy at the School of Health and Welfare given part-time (50% rate of study) with a duration of four academic years (August 2020 – June, 2024). You will be studying towards a Master of Science (120 Credits) with a major in Occupational Therapy.

The programme is a Web based programme, taught completely online. This means that there are no compulsory meetings on Campus. All contact with the School of Health and Welfare, and the lectures as well as real time seminar is provided online.

Things to do ahead of programme start

More information about your programme and courses can be found at <https://ju.se/student/en.html> You will also find necessary information about the course as well as programme start and things to complete ahead of roll call <http://ju.se/newstudent> Please, keep in mind that information on the “newstudent”-webpage is general for all students and may not fully apply to you taking an online programme.
