

Create or edit Eduroam/WiFi-account & password

When connecting to JU's wireless network, you'll need to use an account name and password that's different from your JU-account credentials.

Below you'll find the steps how to create or change these credentials.

Open up the page for self service user account.

You will find the self service page at:
The kiosks located around campus

Self service user account

Eduroam (WiFi)

You are required to use a different password for eduroam from the one associated to your Jönköping University user account. A separate eduroam account is required because of security reasons and requirements from international academic identity provisioning.

Your eduroam user ID: `Username@ju.se`

The current password is valid until: 7/16/2072

Below you can change your eduroam password. Your password is valid until further notice and has to be exactly 7 characters.
