

First Call: Conference Invitation

This is an invitation to participate in the second of the conference series to be organized by the Institute of Cerebral Palsy (IICP), Bangladesh Institute for Lifelong Learning (BILL), the International Institute of Adult & Lifelong Education (IIALE) and the Department of Special Education, Stockholm University.

Title: The Role of Adult Learning and Education in Creating Inclusive Societies: good practices in translating vision into reality.

Date: November 25th-26th 2020 at IICP Kolkata India

Deadline for the abstract: May 15th 2020

Word Limit: 450

The sub-themes for the conference are:

1. Inclusive environments: community engagement, social capital, inclusive schools, inclusive class environments, inclusive learning,
2. Intergenerational and lifelong learning: attitudes, cultural biases, communication (special reference to the deaf community, children with autism),
3. Social justice: accessibility to schools, socio-economic conditions of families,
4. Family Literacy (FLY): collaborating with families, family literacy and education.

The abstract is to be sent to khaleda-gani.dutt@specped.su.se

Please look for funding opportunities to participate in the conference since we have limited resources. Kindly contact Khaleda for further information regarding travel expenses (accommodation and flight tickets) to apply for grants.

There will be no conference registration fees.