

MuDD2019, 8 - 9 April 2019
 Jönköping University, School of Education and Communication
All Sessions are in Room Hc113

Date	Time	Theme	Abstract	Comment
8 April	8.30-9.00	COFFEE & REGISTRATION School of Education and Communication Foyer
	9.00-9.30	OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE HC113
8 April	9.30-11.30	Centre or periphery? Chair Person: Elisabet Sandblom		3 x 30 minutes + 30 minutes panel discussion
		Karl Ian Cheng Chua (Ateneo de Manila University, Philippines)	Southeast Asia as a Method: Engaging the Globe via a Multicultural Space	Keynote 1
		Ana Deumert (University of Cape Town, South Africa)	Let's shuffle: An epistemology of dance and decoloniality	Keynote 2
		Imtiaz Hasnain (Aligarh Muslim University, India)	Interrogating linguistic diversity from the norms of multilingualism in the Global South	Keynote 3
	11.30-13:00	LUNCH Brasserie Park
8 April	13:00-14:15	Centre or periphery? Chair Person:		3 x 20 minutes + 5 minutes discussion after each paper
		Ylva Lindberg (Jönköping University, Sweden) Fabienne Darling-Wolf (Temple University, USA)	Literary production – a way to voice cultural and linguistic peripheries	Paper 1

MuDD2019, 8 - 9 April 2019

Jönköping University, School of Education and Communication

All Sessions are in Room Hc113

		Sangeeta Bagga-Gupta (Jönköping University, Sweden) Apprameya Rao (Freelance Journalist, India)	Languaging features and identity positionings in contemporary social media	Paper 2
		Om Prakash (Gautam Buddha University, India)	Identity, Socialization and Languaging in Asynchronous Virtual Space of Multilingual India	Paper 3
	14:15-14:45	COFFEE
8 April	14:45-16:05	Language, participation and democracy Chair Person:		2 x 30 minutes + 20 minutes panel discussion
		Kavita Rane (PRABHA Foundation, India)	Languaging in Indian Broadcast Mediascapes – From Linguistic Diversity to Linguistic Hierarchy	Keynote 4
		Gudrun Ziegler (The multi-LEARN Institute, Luxembourg)	Conceptualizing participation in the new environment: re-inventing communication for / as participation and change	Keynote 5
8 April	16:05-17:45	Language, participation and democracy Chair Person:		4 x 20 minutes + 5 minutes discussion after each paper
		Mauro Tosco (University of Turin, Italy)	Democracy as a threat to language diversity	Paper 4
		Bridget Goodman Sulushash Kerimkulova (Nazarbayev University, Kazakhstan)	Multilingualism in Kazakhstan: Norm or Exception?	Paper 5

MuDD2019, 8 - 9 April 2019

Jönköping University, School of Education and Communication

All Sessions are in Room Hc113

		Michael M. Kretzer (Rhodes University, South Africa)	Language Policies in schools in Sub-Saharan Africa and its social consequences	Paper 6
		Prem Pasad Poudel (The Education University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)	Democracy, Diversity and Shifts in Medium of Instruction Policies in Nepal: A Lesson to Learn	Paper 7
	17:45-18:00	CONCLUSION OF CONFERENCE DAY 1

CONFERENCE DAY 2
Room Hc113
9 April	9.00-10.20	Multilingualism as lived experience Chair Person:		2 x 30 minutes + 20 minutes panel discussion
		Mira Desai (SNDT Women's University, India)	Multilingualism and day-to-day life in India: Explorations	Keynote 6
		Sanjay Ranade (Mumbai University, India)	Multilingualism, Diversity and Democracy – The Indian Scenario	Keynote 7
	10.20-10.40	COFFEE
9 April	10.40-11.30	Multilingualism as lived experience Chair Person:		2 x 20 minutes + 5 minutes discussion after each paper
		Miché Thompson (University of Cape Town, South Africa)	Multilingualism in a South African informal workplace: a case study of linguistic practices in Chinese shops in Cape Town	Paper 8

MuDD2019, 8 - 9 April 2019

Jönköping University, School of Education and Communication

All Sessions are in Room Hc113

		OU Wanyu Amy (The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong and Lund University, Sweden)	What is the lingua franca in internationalized universities today? A multimodal analysis of multilingual students' language practices in China	Paper 9
	11.30-13:00	LUNCH Restaurang Guvenören
9 April	13:00-14.20	Multilingualism and identity in education Chair Person:		2 x 30 minutes + 20 minutes panel discussion
		Nancy Hornberger (University of Pennsylvania, USA)	Stories and lessons from Indigenous education	Keynote 8
		Alessio Surian (University of Padova, Italy)	Cross-cultural Peer Feedback	Keynote 9
	14.20-14.50	COFFEE
9 April	14.50-16.30	Multilingualism and identity in education Chair Person:		4 x 20 minutes + 5 minutes discussion after each paper
		Boglárka Straszer (Dalarna University, Sweden) David Kroik (Umeå University, Sweden and Nord University, Norway)	Indigenous language rights and translingual spaces in a Saami pre-school	Paper 10

MuDD2019, 8 - 9 April 2019

Jönköping University, School of Education and Communication

All Sessions are in Room Hc113

		Carla Jonsson (Stockholm University, Sweden)	Language policies and language ideologies in the workplace	Paper 11
		Aigerim Kazymbek Zarina Kalizhanova Makpal Mukhametzhanova Shakhrizat Agaidarova (Nazarbayev University, Kazakhstan)	Unveiling Students' Linguistic Repertoires Through Creative Activities	Paper 12
		Gudrun Ziegler Ju Youn Song Natalia Durus (The multi-LEARN Institute, Luxembourg)	Emergent collaborative practices - a technology-enhanced visual approach for young migrants in Luxembourg	Paper 13
9 April	16.30-17.30	PANEL DISCUSSION Chair Person: Sangeeta & Invited Speakers
	18:30	Bus leaving from John Bauer Hotel for Fjällstugan Restaurant
	19:00	CONFERENCE DINNER & CLOSING OF ACADEMIC CONFERENCE At Fjällstugan Restaurant		